The trail goes by picnic areas, tennis courts, ball fields, playground areas, Clarinda Lied Center (the indoor recreational center for the area), and many shady areas. On the east part of the trail, one gets a taste of the country, as it passes by agricultural land and one can view the Nodaway River in the distance and the rolling hills of Page county.

The Clarinda Community Trail is one mile in length, eight feet wide, and all concrete. There are larger maps of the trail located in the trail head building located at the beginning of the trail.
